On the other hand, the leaves fall each autumn, and dead leaves most often symbolise death and sadness. But there is a bittersweet taste to the fate of the leaves at that time of year. While the leaves may fall, wither and die, in the process they produce new soil that is rich in nutrients.

Leaf Symbolic Meaning - Life Giving And Taking - Spiritual ...

Like the falling leaves from the trees, life must take a new course by shedding off the old to usher in the new. This part of the season's cycle stretches out to winter which spiritual gurus say provides time for people to absorb and accept the ongoing change in one's inner self. Toward the end of winter the spring of hope awaits.

Leaves fall from trees, feeding the ground so new growth can occur. Let go of your past frustrations, anger, and other negative energies or feelings, and churn them into the soil. Allow them to pave the way for new spiritual growth. After the leaves have been churned into the soil, plant some seeds and wait for spring! Light a Cleansing Fire

Spiritual Cleansing Rituals for the Fall - Original ...

Letting the leaves fall also requires us to face fears of the future. When we let go, we realize we must step out into the unknown, trusting that something is supporting us. But just as the trees let go of their undergrowth, having full faith that spring will come and new leaves will burst forth, you can have that faith through the winter, too.

Let the Leaves Fall - Awakening Self

The voice of autumn speaks in a susurrus of leaves, its breath cool and dry and full of change. It is the winding down of the year, a time of both harvest and of death. More than any other season,...

When Leaves Fall A Spiritual Novel - partsstop.com

The trees (at least the deciduous ones) must shed their old leaves to allow new ones to grow in spring. It's a risk, of course: they can't be 100% sure that new leaves will come, or that they will be as beautiful as last year's. The trees must trust in an uncertain process, putting their faith in nature's, and their own, power.
